Mrs. Wilson will undertake to organize the entire county through the schools, and with this end in view asks every teacher in the county to take an interest in the work. It is her plan to have the teachers organize their schools into Red Cross Auxiliaries, with the teacher in charge.

This is a useful work, both to our soldiers and the children. The children can make and contribute many useful articles for our soldier boys, and at the same time receive useful and practical training. Mrs. Wilson asks every teacher in the county to get in communication with her either by letter or telephone, and she will take great pleasure in outlining the work for them.

A special monthly schedule of activities for the Junior Red Cross work will provide some definite undertaking for each month. One hundred percent of the schools and one hundred percent of each school is the end contemplated. Every teacher in the county should lend at once his hearty cooperation to this work.

SAYS DEMOCRATS ARE "FRYING FAT"

Congressman Reads Letter To Contractor Asking For Donation.

Washington, Sept. 30.—That the Democratic National Committee is "frying fat" from Government contractors, Postmasters, and other employees by soliciting campaign fund subscriptions was charged on the house floor today by Representative Good, Republican, of Iowa. Mr. Good called on the Democrats to exercise the corrupt practices act or amend it so that contributions received from such sources will be shown in the reports of expenses required by law.

Mr. Good made public a letter addressed by the "financial Chairman of the Democratic National Committee" to a man in Oregon interested in profitable Government contracts. The letter follows:

"It is incumbent upon every citizen to make an extraordinary effort to uphold the policies of our great President, which can be done only by election to the Senate men who are 100 per cent. American, in accord with the aims of the Administration.

"A broad, comprehensive educational campaign is being conducted throughout the country. It is necessarily expensive.

"You are now given an opportunity to do something real, and we hope you will make an early contribution, with the knowledge that what you do will help place the National Administration in a position to increase its efforts in the prosecution of the war."

Mr. Good charged Senator Simmons of North Carolina, Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, with making political capital out of the establishment of cantonments in his State. Calling attention to the fact that a contest is being waged for Senator Simmons' seat, Mr. Good said because he secured one camp at a cost of $4,400,000, and the location of another was promised. "It is urged that he should be re-elected to the Senate.

"If it is immoral," continued Mr. Good, "for the wife and family of Truman H. Newberry, who have large independent fortunes of their own, to contribute to the nomination of Commander Newberry of the Third Naval District, for a seat in the Senate, and to defeat the nomination of Henry Ford, how much more immoral is it for a United States Senator to reach into the Treasury of the United States and grab eight or nine millions of the people's money for the building of cantonments in his own State, and then use that grab, or allow it to be used, as an argument for his re-election?"

Senator Simmons tonight declined to discuss the charge by Mr. Good. "It is foolish to talk about," he said.

THE OLD MEETING HOUSE.

Our grandfathers of a century ago knew nothing of churches. They were only meetin' houses, and instead of going to church they went to meetin'. A recent incident of the removal of the timber that formed one of these ancient temples of worship carries us back to one of the oldest meetin' houses in the county.

A full century ago the farmers of the Liberty neighborhood, near Beaver Dam, but before Beaver Dam was settled, went to the forest and hewed out, from great poplar trees, logs and built the old Liberty meetin' house. There for many years the plain country folks met to sing and pray and shout and hold the funeral services for their dead. Nearly three quarters of a century ago a frame meetin' house took the place of the old, and Blackstone Taylor took the logs of the old meetin' house for a farm barn. Taylor went hence and Charlie Barnard came on the farm, and continued to use the church-log barn. Later the farm passed into other hands, and only a few days ago Jack Monroe purchased the old logs, yet well preserved after more than a century of weathering, removed them to Rosine, where they will be used for a stock barn, and thus the ancient logs will continue for many years to come to link the present with the old days of the log meetin' house.

DEMOCRATS PUT RIGHT SIDE UP

Minister Writes Open Letter To Chairman Asking For Donation.

The Rev. Felix K. Struve, one of the most widely-known ministers of the state and now serving a pastorate at Irvine, Ky., has written an open letter to Thomas S. Rhea, chairman of the Democratic State Campaign Committee, replying to the contents of a mimeographed letter sent out from Democratic headquarters. Mr. Struve, who does not state his politics, flays the partisan appeal contained in Mr. Rhea's letter and ridicules the assumption set forth by Mr. Rhea that the great war for world freedom is or can be monopolized by the Democratic party. The text of the minister's letter follows:

My Dear Sir:

Your mimeograph communication of the 16th inst., is so unusual and so impudent, that the ordinary form of reply would scarcely cover the case. You will, therefore, I hope, pardon the publicity of this announcement. In order that others may fully understand the significance of your letter, permit me to quote your own words, following them with brief comments of my own.

"I know as a rule that you do not take much interest in politics and I am not now appealing to you from a political standpoint, but I recognize that there is no profession that has rendered greater service to our country and to our President in this great war than has the preachers."

On the contrary, I do take some interest in politics—but I am rather careful as to the kind of politics." You may say that your appeal is not made from a political standpoint, but it is, and a mean, measty sort of politics." I am almost incensed at being taken for such a simpleton! Yes, the preachers of America have done very much in behalf of our President, and they would, as true patriots, do as much for any man who should be the occupant of the White House. Whoever is President is my President, no matter what may be his party name—and many preachers have the same idea on the subject. You say:

"This is a time when we should forget all past differences, and send a Democratic senator to Washington to uphold the hands of the President; a man who will be in thorough sympathy with President Wilson's policies. If we fail to elect a Democratic senator this fall we will probably lose control of the United States Senate. If the Republican party should get control it would mean a reorganization of all the war committees, Republicans like Smoot, Sherman, Penrose and others, some of whom, as you know, have heckled President Wilson for his policies."

Well since you remind me of the fact there are a few "past differences," which to my way of thinking, should not be forgotten for a long, long time. Supposing you to mean that these "differences" related to members of the Democratic party. Preachers who have been engaged in moral reform for almost a half century, are not apt to "forget" a great many things—and persons! Whoever goes to the United States Senate these days will support the President—that he will do so, the people are sure to find out before they send him. Yes, there are a few Republicans, "like Smoot, Penrose, Sherman and others" who sure did "heckle" the President. There is a faint record on my memory tablets that a few Democrats did the same thing—and were left at home by the last election!

"We believe that you recognize the importance of giving President Wilson a Democratic Congress and Senate. It is necessary in order to win the war to give our boys and our money and help President Wilson make us safe for religion, democracy and civilization and it is just as necessary to give him a Democratic Congress and Senate."

Oh, I suppose, from a purely partisan standpoint, it would be all right to give "President Wilson a Democratic congress and senate." And yet you can not fail to recall some Democratic members of those bodies who were "left at home" last election because they opposed the President. We shall win the war most certainly. My son and only son volunteered for service in behalf of his country, not because any particular person was our President. Nobody, so far as I am informed, finds any objection to our honorable President, but that Mr. Wilson, as our President, so far as I am able to understand the matter, can not "make us safe for religion" —did not know that he was attempting such a thing. A higher power will control that phase of the world struggle. I do not think that "democracy and civilization" are in the sole custodianship of the Democratic party, or any other political party, as to that matter. Every man who is fighting "over yonder," from this side of the sea, has a common brand on his heart, "made in America" and "politics is adjourned" for them! They are truly fighting to "make the world safe for Democracy," which is a long way from any sort of "party politics."

Let's not insult those brave soldiers, dying for their country, by intimating that they are fighting for "party politics." Shame!

"We will appreciate every effort you will make along this line."

Ver respectively,

THOMAS S. RHEA.

Chairman State Democratic Campaign Committee.

Well Brother Rhea, do you really "appreciate every effort" I attempt to "make along this line?" I truly hope so. I am doing my utmost to discover those candidates for Congress and Senate who will prove 100 per cent American, and being so, will most certainly support our President. Mind you, I am not writing as a preacher, but as a citizen having sufficient interest in his country as to put none but true patriots on guard in these perilous times. Most respectfully,

FELIX K. STRUVE.

THE WEEK IN WAR.

We are approaching the end of the most eventful week of the entire war. After many weary weeks of desperate fighting, in which victory has followed victory in unbroken succession, evidences are appearing that the spirit of the enemy is breaking. Pressed to the last ditch Bulgaria cries out for peace. It is the breaking of the first link in the chain that has so long held together the four criminal nations of central Europe.

Bulgaria has accepted terms of unconditional surrender, and her arms and her wheat fields will no longer support the pawsing arm of the Hun. The surrender of Bulgaria, lying as it does in the pathway between Turkey and Germany, will force Turkey to make terms with the Allies. With Bulgaria and Turkey out of the way the Allies will be able to attack Austria with a powerful army on its eastern front. Austria has with much difficulty been held in the war, and it is doubtful if her people will stand the pressure of a great allied army at her back door. Should Austria desert, under such pressure, her German ally, the end of the war would be near. We would not encourage a too hopeful optimism. There are many ifs in the conditions we are mentioning. The only certain fact is that Bulgaria is definitely out of the war, and other events referred to are only highly probable consequences of Bulgaria's withdrawal.

On the western front conditions are more favorable for the Allies than at any former period of the war. Every day is a day of victory. The Hindenburg line has been smashed at many vital points. The stronghold of St. Quentin has at last fallen, and the march to Berlin continues from day to day. Only yesterday the entire German cabinet resigned and these were troubled times in the tossed and torn German empire. The Hun's national spirit is breaking under the terrific strain, and it seems a fair promise that the year of the double nine will see the dominion of peace again restored to the peoples of the earth. But glorious as the news is let us not relax our efforts. The end is not yet. Duty demands that no sacrifice be spared that will hasten the end. The German war machine is still strong and powerful and may weather the storm of blood and death for many weary days to come. But be of good cheer. The dawn of the peace day is breaking in the east, and the thunder of our artillery is giving the Hun a rude awakening from his long and pleasing dream of military domination of the earth.

GERMANS ADMIT

DREAM IS OVER

"We Must Fight For Our Existence Says Hun Press.

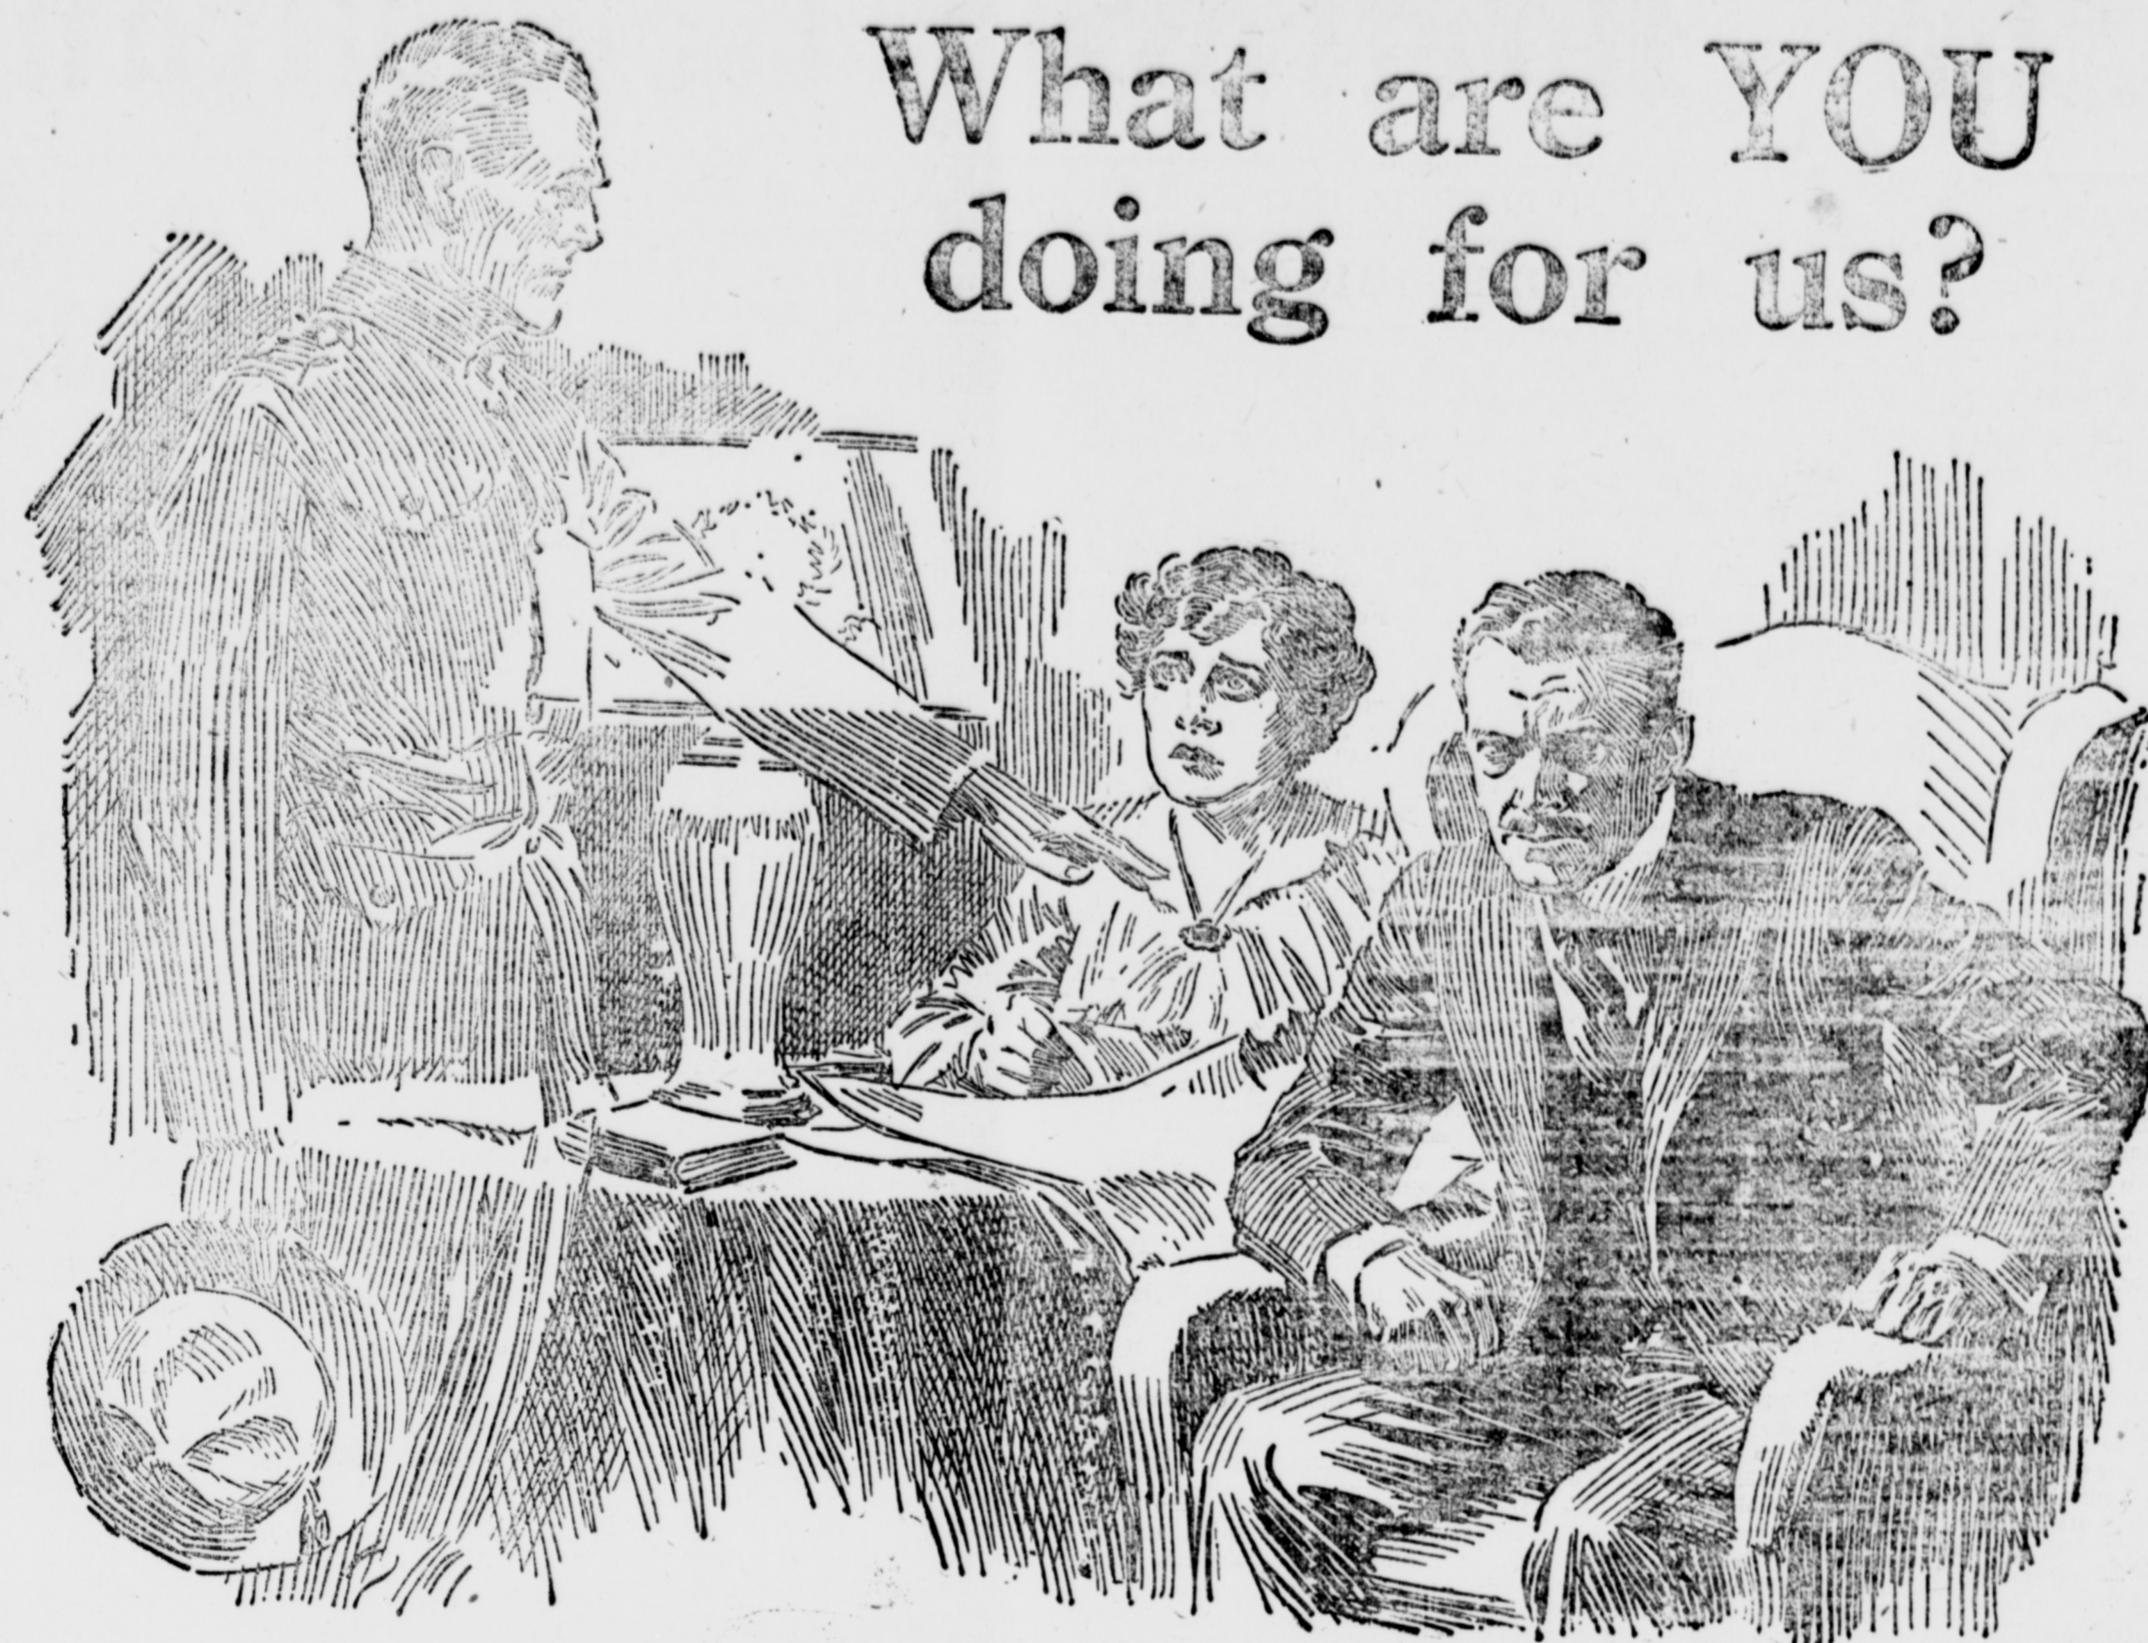

Amsterdam, Sept. 28.—Germany is beginning to realize that it is a nation of scoundrels.

Press comment, always the best key to the public opinion of a nation, is veering around to the point where it is confessing Germany's faults. Frankly the German papers are beginning to admit that they must abandon the idea that their armies are fighting for conquest, and realize that what they are fighting for is bare existence.

"It is a matter of damnable importance," says the Cologne Gazette, always regarded as a semi-official journal, "whether we are or are not regarded throughout the world as a nation of blackguards. Indeed we are being so regarded."

Charge Misrepresentation.

What are YOU doing for us?

The voices of a million and a half of our boys in France are asking you that question. Another million and a half will soon be asking it. These men are giving their lives for your freedom—they have a right to ask what you are doing to help them. They need your help, and if you give it quickly you will help save the lives of thousands of our boys.

Believing that it is the duty of every person who enjoys the freedom and privileges of citizenship in our great Country to do his utmost to help win the war, the following firms and individuals have patriotically contributed the money to pay for this and other advertisements of the Fourth Liberty Loan:

We are working day and night to organize, train, equip and transport an army of four million men to France. While we are working, our boys over there are dying. The longer it takes us, the more lives will be sacrificed. Don't you be responsible for any of the delay—do your duty promptly.

Buy Fourth Liberty Bonds “Don’t let the SON go down”

You don't have to pay all cash for your bonds. You can make your first payment from cash in the bank, and take care of the balance out of your daily, weekly or monthly savings.

The forced saving you do now will mean a nice nest egg later, for the bonds you buy now and pay for as you go along will prove a splendid investment that will pay you a good interest every six months. After the war, the bonds will be worth more than you paid for them. Don't hesitate to do your duty and do it quickly.

MR. LYMAN BARRETT
WRITES TO EDITORS

Mr. Lyman Barrett, former local editor of the Hartford Herald, writes interesting letter to the editors of The Republican.

"Somewhere" in France, September 1, 1918.

Dear Friends:—For several weeks I have intended to write to you, as I had promised, but a machine gunner is not idle, though he is far behind the front line trenches.

As you perhaps know, I cannot tell much about conditions here, but will say we are faring fine and expect to be home within a few months.

We have just finished a good supper, and during this meal I saw a sight that was so impressive I must tell you about it. As our company had lined up in single file to receive our mess an old man, feeble and bent, came pushing a small, patched up cart, and stopped for a rest just opposite our line. As some of the boys could converse with him, they found that he was a Belgian refugee who had been shot in the hands when the Boches raided his home, and he was forced to push his few belongings about from town to town, depending upon those more fortunate, for a living. As is usual with Americans the boys did their full duty. One fellow filled his canteen with hot coffee, another took his pan and heaped it up with beans, potatoes, meat, gravy, bread and jam. In the meantime some one had started a collection and as the pile of quarters, dimes, sous etc., was laid in his crippled hand it would have compensated for a month's service to have seen the smiles of appreciation as he counted it over, and then pointed at the worn out shoes to show with this he intended to purchase a new pair.

READS LETTER SHOWING HOW
POLITICS IS ADJOURNED

Washington, Sept. 21.—Senator New, of Indiana, Republican, read to the Senate today a letter which he said was written by Secretary Tumulty to Arthur Brisbane, whose purchase of the Washington Times with loans from brewers is under investigation, requesting Mr. Brisbane to send copies of the Hearst Chicago newspaper so that Mr. Tumulty might follow Mr. Brisbane's Democratic fight in Chicago. The letter follows:

"White House, Washington, May 14.—My Dear Brisbane:—When you were at the White House offices today, I forgot to ask you to send me the Chicago Herald and Examiner regularly to my office here. I am sure you are going to make the same good Democratic fight in Chicago that you have been making in your paper in Washington and I want to see just how you do it. Sincerely yours,

J. P. TUMULTY,
Secretary to the President."

Senator New remarked that this letter was written shortly after "politics had been officially adjourned" and expressed the hope that the letter would be referred to the Senate committee investigating the Washington Times affair.

MODERN CINDERELLA
HAD FOOT TO FIT.

Manchester, Sept. 1.—The different sizes chosen for the standard boots for women apparently do not include size one, which raises an interesting point. Some little time ago an old curiosity shop in a country town showed in its window a woman's shoe of ancient date. It was made of a gray-blue brocaded silk, with a large square cut tongue and fastened with a buckle. The heel was very high, made of wood and covered with reddish brown leather. It was a beautiful shoe, and might have belonged to a lady of Marie Antoinette's court, or even trodden dances in the time of our Merry Monarch. But it was so extraordinarily small that 999 women would have failed to get it on.

The thousandth happened to see it, was fascinated by its appearance, and asked if she might try it on. It fitted exactly.

Was the normal size foot of that age, the abnormal one of this? one wonders. And have women's hands feet and waists developed to suit the work which nowadays they have to do?

All who have torpid liver, weak digestion or constipated bowels look out for chills. The season is here and the air is full of the disease germs. SOLDIER LETTER.

James E. Parks writes to parents from the war front in France. On active service with American Expeditionary forces in France. Sept. 1, 1918.

My Dear Old Father and Mother: I will drop you a line to let you know that I am well and getting along fine. Hope you are well.

I am now at the front. They are sure doing the real stuff here now. We can hear the roar of the cannon all the time. If anybody says we are not fighting tell them they do not know what they are talking about. Mother tell all my friends to have all the good times they can. Tell Arthur and Quinten that we used to have good times together and I hope we will again some day. Mother, it is pretty interesting here to us boys, but we are going to whip these Germans over here, and then we are coming home. Tell all the children Hello! for me, and that I would love to see them all. Well, Mother dear, I haven't had any mail for a long time, but I know it is not your fault, for I know you are writing to me. None of us boys has had any mail for a long time. Now don't worry about me. I think I am just as good a man as any of these Germans, and I will make it all right.

From your son,
JAMES E. PARKS.

Can Now Eat and Sleep in Comfort.

If troubled with indigestion or sleeplessness you should read what Miss Agnes Turner, Chicago, Ill., has to say: "Overwork, irregular meals and carelessness regarding the ordinary rules of health, gradually undermined it until last fall I became a wreck of my former self. I suffered from continual headache, was unable to digest my food, which seemed to lay as a dead weight on my stomach. I was very constipated and my complexion became dark, yellow and muddy as I felt. Sleeplessness was added to my misery, and I would awake as tired as when I went to sleep. I heard of Chamberlain's Tablets and found such relief after taking them that I kept up the treatment for nearly two months. They cleansed my stomach, invigorated my system, and since that time I can eat and sleep in comfort. I am today entirely well."

SAUCE FOR THE GOOSE.

Director General McAdoo has aped Cleveland's rule of "pernicious activity" in politics to employees of the railroads. He is right in this. The railroads are national. Every railroad employee is now a federal employee. He stands exactly as does the office-holder in his duties and obligations.

If active in politics, two things would happen: The railroad vote would become more or less of a bloc. It would be used to promote the interests of the bloc. It would be a political training unit and united personal interest in politics, inevitably would effect labor efficiency. This, under a nationalized condition, is manifestly improper.

But will Mr. McAdoo enforce his new order? There are very many who doubt it. If he does, several railroad men, candidates for office in Minnesota, will have to quit their jobs or end their political aspirations. Moreover, their fellow employees will not be able to work for them save stealthily, nor for any other candidate. This is equally the case in most, if not all, other states.

But the railroad men may well wonder why this rule is made only for them and not for any other federal servant. Mr. Cleveland's order was enforced while he was president, and federal officeholders had to stick to their official duties, and not pigeon hole them during political campaigns.

This is not so now. Never in all the history of this country were federal officials from the highest to the lowest more active in politics. In fact they are encouraged in this to use their jobs not only to influence votes for "deserving Democrats," but to get elective office for themselves.

The members of the trade commission have not had to resign to seek governorships and seats in congress. Postmasters do not have to resign to hold party committee places, or even chairmanships. Pretty nearly every federal official in 1916 quit his office and spent weeks campaigning. This spring they were out in force chasing votes in this state's primary election. None of them will be politically "innocuous" this fall.

If not all the horde of other employees of the present Democratic administration, numbered in hundreds of thousands, and paid directly from the federal treasury, why the railroad men, who are paid from the job? Why single them out when the woods are full of these others, chasing votes for themselves or others?

Why the railroad men, when every time President Wilson asks for the scalp of some congressman or senator who has not kept exact step to his music, every office holder jumps up for his gun and knife? It is just as well to wait and see, and not take it for granted that Mr. McAdoo is serious.—Duluth News Tribune.

A RARE COIN.

(New York World.) The Museum of the Numismatic Society has received a gift of probably its rarest coin. This is the famous Confederate half dollar, of which but four were made, and today two only are known to exist.

In the early days of the Civil war the Confederates, when they took New Orleans, seized all government property which included the United States Mint. What coins there were on hand, of course were used. The silver bullion was also minted into United States coins with the dies then there. A die was made for the reverse side of the fifty-cent piece, showing a Confederate shield and the legend, Confederate States of America. The obverse side of the old United States half dollar, showing a seated figure of liberty surrounded by 13 stars, dated 1861, was to be used in conjunction with the new die.

Four pieces only were struck, probably to submit to the high officials in Richmond. No more pieces were ever struck, as the supply of bullion had run out, and during the life of the Confederacy no sufficient amount of bullion was ever obtained to strike any silver coins.

NEW WEAPON FOUND
FOR COMBATING HUN

(From Stars and Stripes.) Yankee ingenuity has developed a new weapon for use against the Hun. No, it will not be used very often, yet there are times.

An American unit of Engineers (Railway) was hauling ammunition and supplies for the French in the face of one of the German drives this year.

At the height of things when the Hun was coming over in force and advancing in a way which meant the loss of everything that could not be moved promptly, a $15,000 locomotive jumped the track.

Sergeant George Robertson, in charge, watched the battle for a moment, looked at his steam gauge, screwed the safety valve down tight, turned the oil fuel reserve supply into the fire box, and then effected a solitary and successful retreat.

Half an hour later, some sixty Germans were standing about the stranded locomotive when the boiler did the one thing which Sergeant Robertson hoped for—blew up.

It had all the effects of a fourteen-inch shell.

Incidentally, Sergeant Robertson is now wearing the Croix de Guerre.

TO GUIDE SOLDIERS' RELATIVES.

For the convenience and comfort of relatives visiting sick or convalescent soldiers and sailors at the big base hospitals in this country, the American Red Cross will build small information houses near the hospitals at each big cantonment. Guides will be supplied to show visitors directly to the ward they seek.

The American Red Cross numbers 20,000 American Indians among its members.

The president of the Republic of Guatemala, Central America, recently made a gift of $2,000 to the American Red Cross.

American Red Cross nurses and American soldiers were active in assisting and caring for the injured at the time of the railway accident near Vierzon, France.

of them can buy bonds.

One of the speakers, a prominent leader of his people, spoke of the two colored privates who were the first to be decorated for bravery in France.

"When the Germans heard about it," he humorously remarked, "they began to go back, and they've been going back every since. A negro was never known to run, because he is fast black. When you see a black cloud arising, you may know that something is going to happen. Put two million negroes in France, and the war would end right now."

The buying of bonds and War Savings Stamps has given the American colored citizen the opportunity he has long sought to show that he could stand by the side of his white brother in all matters of loyalty to the Government, and he has not been slow to respond. And the more bonds he has bought the better off financially he has found himself.

The future will find many thousands of negroes and negro churches bond-holding citizens and institutions.

PREPARING FOR "DRY" SPELL.
(Pittsburg Dispatch.)

New York city has 7,000 saloons all of which must go out of existence by July 1, 1919, according to the bill passed by the Senate on Friday. The hope of the war ending before July 1, 1919, is clung to by some, but others feel that prohibition is an irresistible movement which is futile to oppose. The opinion is freely expressed that closing of saloons will mean considerable bootlegging at exorbitant prices, $12 a pint for whisky being predicted. Practical souls are carrying acquaintance with wealthy men who have prepared for a period of drought by stocking their cellars with great quantities of liquors of all description. A month or two ago when rumors of prohibition dictated by the war needs filled the air these provident ones, it was reported placed huge orders with the wholesalers, as high as $50,000 being expended for brewed and distilled liquors in one order.

STOMACH TROUBLE

Mr. Marion Holcomb, of Nancy, Ky., says: "For quite a long while I suffered with stomach trouble. I would have pains and a heavy feeling after my meals, a most disagreeable taste in my mouth. If I ate anything with butter, oil or grease, I would spit it up. I began to have regular sick headache. I had used pills and tablets, but after a course of these, I would be constipated. It just seemed to tear my stomach all up. I found they were no good at all for my trouble. I heard

Black-Draught acts on the jaded liver and helps it to do its important work of throwing out waste materials and poisons from the system. FRIDAY OCTOBER 4

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For United States Senator—

BEN. L. BRUNER.

For Congress—

JOHN P. HASWELL, JR.

For Appellate Judge—

MUSKER. L. HEAVRIN.

It is October, Indian Summer, and no frost yet. The tobacco is being cut and the corn is ripening in the fields. Verily fortune favors us.

Politics is adjourned in the Second Appellate district. Only the question of life tenure in office is to be determined in November.

We verily believe the dove of peace will soon again find a place to rest from her long and weary flight.
We can almost hear the rustle of her wings.

The great Liberty Loan bond sale is on. No good citizen can be excused from lending aid to this service, but those who find it wholly impossible to help.

We wish we knew some garb of un-worn words with which to clothe our naked sentiments as we behold the lovely coloring of the foliage of the autumn forest.

Shout over the allied victories in the west and the removal of Bulgaria
from the war in the east, but buy Liberty Bonds and save sugar just like you expected the war to last five years.

Poor Bulgaria! She went into the war purely for mercenary purposes,
and now she has been forced to accept terms of unconditional surrender. A just punishment for her crimes.

This newspaper has no word of disparagement for Judge Settle as a citizen or as a judge, but it very firmly believes that no man should be elected for the third term to any office, and especially to one with an eight year term.

The defeat of the woman suffrage
amendment in the senate Tuesday means a Republican congress in November. Nineteen states have woman suffrage and the Democratic congressmen elected in those states will be few and far between.

In a down town district in Louisville paint has failed to fully erase a large billboard sign, painted when Stanley was a candidate for governor three years ago, which reads, VOTE FOR STANLEY AND AGAINST PROHIBITION.

Twenty six Democrats and twenty seven Republican senators voted for the President's war measure woman suffrage bill and twenty one Democrats and ten Republicans voted against it, and still they tell us we must elect a Democratic senator from Kentucky to support the President's war measures.

Under our system of government
we must have some politics, but let us have no bitter partisanship while their full duty.

the country is engaged in a bloody war. Let us rather consider candidates on their personal merits, and the effect of their election on the prosecution of the war and upon the morals of the times.

The defeat of the woman suffrage
resolution in the United States Senate by a majority of Democratic votes, after the President had gone personally before that body and asked for its passage as a war measure, forever bars the Democratic party
from arguing the election of a Democratic senate to insure support of the President's war measures.

The voters in Ohio county should give Mr. Heavrin the largest vote ever given to a citizen of Ohio county.

His eminent legal fits for the office
and his splendid personal character make it entirely practical to vote for him regardless of party considerations, and it would be no mean honor to the county to have one of its citizens sit in the highest court in the state.

Republican headquarters on the eighth floor of the Republic building in Louisville is as busy as a beehive.
But the work is unlike any we have ever seen before, and we have gone through a number of them. There is little or no partisan feeling, and very little politics. Win the war and elect the best men to office, is the burden of the work by those in charge. Truly the event of war takes much of the bitterness out of the hearts of men.

We are told we must elect a United States senator to support the President's war policies. The President has declared woman suffrage a war measure, and went personally before the senate and asked for passage of the resolution. Senator Beckham voted against the measure and Mr.
Stanley refused, when called upon,
to say he would support the suffrage amendment. Dr. Bruner has declared for Woman Suffrage. Elect Dr. Bruner to support the President's war policies.

Dr. Bruner has asked Governor Stanley if he will vote and work for the adoption of the state wide prohibition amendment in Kentucky next year, but so far the Governor has failed to answer. The Board of Directors of the Kentucky Federation of Woman's Clubs, in session at the Watterson Hotel in Louisville Tuesday, sent a telegram to Mr. Stanley asking him to state his position on woman suffrage, but with our last information Mr. Stanley had not defined his position.

Judge Settle has served twenty six continuous years on the circuit and Appellate benches in Kentucky and has drawn in salaries for such service $110,000 from the state treasury. If elected to another eight years term of that office he will have served thirty four years and will have drawn $150,000 in public salaries. What inducement for the fathers of the state to prepare their sons for honorable public service if one man may hold office a lifetime and draw a fortune
from the state treasury in salaries.

Only thirteen out of 250,000 Kentucky Democrats voted for the nomination of Governor Stanley for United States senator. He declined to let the other 250,000 Democrats vote on the question.

"Worse tyrants than the Kaiser
and bigger fools" was Governor

Stanley's opinion of the Prohibition-ists, as expressed in a speech in Cincinnati as late as March 18, 1918.

In a speech in Cincinnati, delivered

March 18, 1918, Gov. Stanley said

there was little use of our boys laying down their lives for liberty in France if a lot of fanatics and cranks (the prohibitionists) are allowed to deprive Americans of liberty at home.

President Wilson has urged the passage of the woman suffrage amendment as a war measure. Dr.
Bruner has announced he will support the woman suffrage amendment.
Gov. Stanley refuses to commit himself. Whom shall we send to the senate to support the President's war measures?

Having served his district in the lower house of the American congress and his state as Governor it is almost pitiable to see Mr. Stanley, now by the accident of death and the fortunate mastery of the Democratic state central committee, a candidate for United States senator, standing alone
amid the wreck of the powers that made him. Not a single important Democratic newspaper in the state is loyally supporting him. Only the brewers and distillers, now shorn of their power, and the lowly convicts who have enjoyed the grace of his pardon, are sincerely praying for his election.

It is almost pitiable to see Mr. Stanley, with some measure of public preference behind him and now aspiring to sit in the senate of his country, standing alone and unsupported. When the liquor combine was powerful in both political parties in the state Mr. Stanley became the champion of their interest and they made him governor. But now the whisky people, down and out, have no further use for his services, and the dry people outraged with his whisky record, recoil from his support and even the most influential Democratic newspapers will not allow his name to appear on their editorial pages. Without intending to appear cynical, we entertain a feeling of pity for him on account of his disappointment at his blasted career.

Ohio County's Quota for 4th LIBERTY LOAN IS $256,000

St. Louis, Sept. 27, 1918.—The quota of Fourth Liberty Loan Bonds

to be sold by Ohio County, in the campaign that opened Saturday, Sept.

28 and closes Saturday, October 19, covering a period of three weeks is $256,000.

The county's quota in the Third

Liberty Loan was $84,900 and the amount of bonds to be sold totaled $242,050.

The quota for the present campaign is considerably larger than for former loans, and to reach the sales allotted, and go over the top and demonstrate to the world that our county is 100 per cent American depends upon the prompt response of our citizens.

This county has done its full duty in the past, and now that our boys are on foreign soil, wresting victory from the Hun, there is no question but the loyal citizens of the county will do
their full duty.

AN EXPERIMENT IN PUBLIC CONTROL

POLITICS IN PARAGRAPHS.

The Kentucky ministers are for Bruner; the Kentucky brewers are for Stanley. With which will you vote?

Never before in the history of Kentucky politics has it fallen out that not a single influential Democratic newspaper in the state is whole-heartedly supporting a nominee of that party for so exalted an office as United States senator.

He is not a wise Democrat who does not know the Democratic party would be many thousand votes stronger in Kentucky with Stanley defeated in November than with Stanley elected.

It is not enough that Republicans have given millions of their sons and billions of dollars to prosecute the war, but they are now called upon to vote the Democratic ticket to demonstrate their loyalty.

At a time when the country is united for the prosecution of the greatest war in all history; at a time when fraternity and good feeling should be held sacred, it is deplorable that men, for no higher purpose than temporary partisan victory, should raise the absurd cry that men should support a certain party's candidates to demonstrate their loyalty.

The Hun who has read the history of the Republican party will find small grains of comfort in the news of that party winning a victory at the polls in November.

It is a matter of just pride to every Republican that no newspaper, nor speaker authorized to speak for his party, has questioned the patriotism
of the Democratic party.

"As goes Maine in September so goes the country in November" has held good for fifty years. The recent election in the Pine Tree State gave the largest Republican majority in recent years.

Our Democratic friends are alarmed lest the election of Dr. Bruner to the United States Senate should be construed in Germany as an evidence the American people were weakening in their support of the war. Dr. Bruner said in his opening speech "At the very beginning of this contest I pledge you that if elected to this high office, as I firmly believe I shall be, that I shall unreservedly and unequivocally support the administration's war politics and purposes."

Perhaps if the Louisville Post would print this speech in its Berlin edition
it would prepare the German Empire
for a further prosecution of the war after Mr. Bruner is elected.

Only thirteen out of 250,000 Kentucky Democrats voted for the nomination of Governor Stanley for United States senator. He declined to let the Young Holbrook and Miss Mary Smith, of Fordsville, were recently married in Hongkong, China. Mrs. Holbrook says there are no beasts of burden nor motor vehicles in Hongkong, but all transportation, freight and passenger, is done by coolie power. The gilded litter of the grande and the carts carrying the heaviest freight are moved by man power.

The registration in the city of Louisville, Tuesday and Wednesday was a great victory for the Republicans. The Democrats registered 18,362 votes and the Republicans registered 16,342, a majority of 2,020 for the Democrats. Last year, when the Republicans carried the city, the Democratic registration majority was 9,609. Much of the fall off in the Democratic vote was due to the unpopularity of Stanley, but a part of it is accounted for by the Democrats not being able, through want of control of the police department, to register several thousand phony voters. If the Republicans carried the city last year with a registered Democratic majority of more than nine thousand what will its majority be this year when the registered majority is a bare two thousand.

STRAY STREAKS
(By Fluke McFluke.)

One drop of water is equal to 1 grain; 60 drops equals 1 dram, but Ernest Birkhead says the same is not true of whiskey, by a darn sight.

Squire Dean says Bat Nall has had most nigh every contagious disease known to medical science, 'ceptin the old fashioned 7 year itch. So he thought he would fetch down one of his old suits of clothes for Bat to clean and press, which would fix Bat so's he'd git a whole lot of real pleasure and satisfaction a scratchin' and a clawin' uv the itching spots during the long nights uv the coming winter.

The Court recently entered an order directing Sheriff Aus Bratcher to destroy a dozen or so quarts of whiskey taken from alleged Booze Peddlers. Bratcher and Cicero Crowder, chief deputy claim to have complied with the Court's order and technically speaking I rather think they have, or will if given time, but what we can't understand is, what in thunder makes these two old birds so gay and frolicsome these days? And why the immense odor of cloves and sen-sen upon the bearded breath of these two sleuths of the law.

OUTLIVED HIS GENERATION.

Sunday afternoon we met, on Brook street in Louisville, an old man white with years and trembling with age, who fifty years ago was one of the best known citizens of Ohio county. At four score years and seven the old gentleman retains all his faculties, and with much interest told us of events about Hartford and in the county that interested the generation now dead and gone.

Fifty and sixty and even seventy years ago John W. Petty, of Sulphur Springs, strong and vigorous in his son, Bell's Run, October 6, 2:30 p. m., young manhood, was a part and parcel of the events of his time. A fancier of horses, and fond of sports he owned, at a time when local horse racing was a favorite sport and pastime, some of the fastest horses of the local race courses, and many was the dollar he won or lost on the local sport.

Of a fiery and impetuous temperament, Mr. Petty played his part in the political controversies of his time, and at a time when politics, heated by the issues of the war, frequently ended in personal encounters. Always in evidence at barbecues, the race courses, political meetings and other public gatherings, his fine physique and his bold manner made him a marked man where ever he appeared. But now time has cooled his ardor and mellowed his temper, and he is a quiet old man at the home of his son, Rev. F. M. Petty, a prominent Methodist minister, who is also well known to Ohio countians. Mr. Petty asked us about many of the older citizens, who were a part of his time, and appeared sensibly saddened when we informed him they had all gone over the Great Divide. To the present generation Mr. Petty's name will appear a strange one, but those past sixty will recall him as no mean citizen of his time, and will be pleased to learn that he is still quietly enjoying his ripe old age.

NOTICE TO DISCONTINUE ROAD.

Ohio County Court.
Hon. Mack Cook, Judge:
We, the undersigned land owners of Ohio county, respectfully petition the discontinuance of the following public road, to-wit:

The public road from what is known as the Greer trestle of the Illinois Central railroad and at the Owensboro and Leitchfield road to the road from Tom Keown's past James Murphy and R. L. Owen lands toward Zion church and Haynesville, being the road lying along the lands of Joe Cheek, W. J. Greer, Willie Wells, James Howard and Arch Cooper, because the petitioners say that said road is not of sufficient public use or of sufficient importance to the general traveling public as to warrant its continuance as a county road, and they say that whatever, if any, inconvenience that might result from the discontinuance of said road can be remedied by the establishment of private passways of sufficient convenience and accommodation of the persons whose lands abut said road.

CONFISCATION OF SAVINGS ACCOUNTS IS A GERMAN LIE

INSIDIOUS HUN PROPAGANDA IS SPREAD TO HINDER FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN.

RUMORED AT MANY PLACES

Enemy Victory the Only Thing That Could Take Away American Property.

Federal authorities are calling attention to a pro-German rumor that has been in circulation for some weeks that the Government, or some other body unnamed, is to seize all savings banks deposits for war purposes. Of course this is nothing more nor less than a pro-German lie stated by some kaiserite or some weak-kneed and weak-brained American who might as well have been in the Kaiser's pay.

It is difficult to believe that any sane person in America would believe such a report for a minute. However, it is reported at Washington that it is being believed by a few easily fooled persons. Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo says that the foolishness of these rumors is plain, but in order to set at rest the fears of a few who might be worried he states officially that these rumors are without any basis of fact; in brief they are plain lies put out to hinder the Fourth Liberty Loan.

If Germany Should Win.

There is only one thing that will endanger the bank deposits of America. There is only one way in which they might be confiscated. That one thing is a German victory. If the Huns could defeat us and the French, British and Italians in Europe and invade this country, then there is but little doubt that savings accounts, stocks, bonds, jewelry, gold, real estate and everything in the way of property would be confiscated.

The one thing that will take away ownership in private property in this country is to let the Germans win the war, either by actual use of arms or through the failure of Americans to support the war as they should by buying Liberty Bonds or paying taxes.

It is foolish to fear that our own Government is going to damage the people of this country—it's own people. With the American armies fighting as well as they are now on the soil of France, and the American people from coast to coast supporting the army as they now are and have been through their first years of the war, the American savings accounts, money, bonds, farms and factories are safe.

Hun Propaganda.

Federal officials point out that it is Germany and its looting hordes that the American savings bank depositor has to fear and not our own armies that are fighting to protect American soil, American property and American lives. In the statement received here from the U. S. Treasury Department this statement is made:

"The United States instead of confiscating or endangering the savings and other property of its people is defending them and theirs with all the irresistible might of this invincible Republic."

It has not been possible to trace the rumor relating to the confiscation of savings accounts to its source, but from the fact that it appeared in widely separated parts of the country at about the same time it is evident that some pro-German agency had busied itself with spreading the story in the hope that it might hurt the success of the Fourth Liberty Loan.

WOMAN'S WORK FOR THE FOURTH LOAN

National Committee Receives Many Responses, One Being in Verse.

Responses are coming in every day to the National Woman's Liberty Loan Committee, according to the report which Mrs. William G. McAdoo, chairman of that organization, sent out a distinctive group of women poets for a stirring appeal for the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign.

The following poem has been sent to Mrs. McAdoo by Miss Edith Thomas, a well-known writer of verse for Harper's, Scribner's and the Atlantic Monthly:

The Sharers.

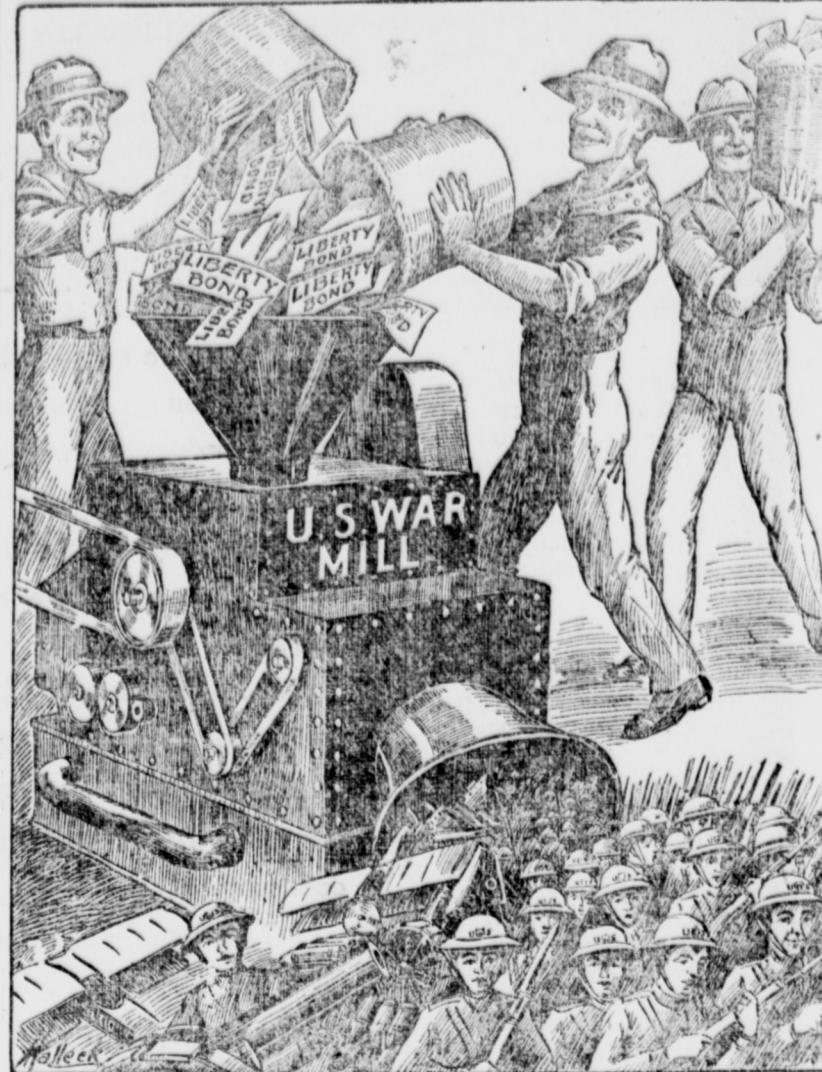

Dear men of ours in fields of scath afar,
Who for the wide world's sake are pledged to fight
Till established be the Commonwealth of Right,
What toll beneath the red ascendant star,
What wounds are yours, whereof how many a scar
That shall be precious in our tearful sight—

True to all that! Have we no present might,
No aid to bring you—women as we are?
Though no command of Death our legions form
To fight beside you, yet there is a way:

Comrades-at-arms, our wills are quick and warm—
Our means we pledge, your valor to upstay;

Behold, in place of us the bond shall stand—
The hand is small, yet open is the hand!

Velvet Beans Solve South's Feed Problems.

The feed question is being solved in many parts of the South by abundant yields of velvet beans which were sown on a large acreage this year. Owing to the increased acreage in Georgia, that state alone could take care of 50,000 to 100,000 head of cattle from states where forage is scarce, according to a report recently received by the Bureau of Crop Estimates. Large quantities of last year's velvet beans also remain on hand and are being used extensively in feeding dairy cattle. In tests conducted by the United States Department of Agriculture on the Government farms at Beltsville, Md., it was found that velvet beans compare favorably with cotton-seed meal, producing profitable gains when the beans are the sole concentrate of the ration; that a combination of corn silage and velvet beans forms a satisfactory ration for fattening steers for market; that it is more profitable to feed soaked beans than it is to grind them; and that more beans will be eaten if soaked before they are fed than if they are fed dry.

Crops Saved in Rodent CONTROL CAMPAIGN.

More than $100,000 worth of crops were saved for the farmers in three Oregon counties by a rodent-control campaign carried on by county agents, in cooperation with the Biological Survey of the United States Department of Agriculture. Fifty thousand sage rats and more than 6,000 jack rabbits were killed in the June Campaign in Crook and Deschutes counties, Ore. Investigation has shown that each rodent does more than a dollar's worth of damage to crops in a season. On this basis the campaign saved the farmers of these two counties more than $50,000. In Douglas county a member of the county court has estimated that the campaign to control gray diggers has been worth more than $50,000 to the county.

FOOD PRICES NOT RAISED.

Washington, Sept. 22—Increases in the cost of food during the past year have been greatly overestimated by laying to much emphasis on special cases, and announcement tonight by the food administration, which gave comparative wholesale costs of the various articles of food for different periods of 1917 and 1918. The actual wholesale cost of foodstuffs per capita during the second quarter of 1918—April May and June—was $25.59, the statement said. This was an increase of 3.5 per cent over the per capita cost during the same period the year before.

No differential between the wholesale and retail prices was given, the statement dealing entirely with wholesale costs. A statement tonight by the Department of labor, however, said that investigations made over the country by its division of statistics showed that retail prices of food increased on an average of 2 per cent from July to August and that during the year ending last August retail prices advanced 15 per cent.

The Food Administration placed the total wholesale costs of all foodstuffs consumed in the United States during the second quarter of this year at $2,693,751,871, compared with $2,563,600,904 in the same period of 1917.

In its comparative lists of costs the Food Administration placed the per capita cost of breadstuffs during the second quarter of 1918 at $3.32, or 9.3 per cent greater than during the same period in 1917. Meats, the largest item, cost per capita $8.91, or 8 per cent greater than in 1917. Dairy products, which cost per capita $5.88, were 6.3 per cent greater, and poultry and eggs, at $2.49 per capita, cost 16.5 per cent more.

Balancing these, the statement said that vegetables per capita cost only $1.17 during the quarter, a decrease of 63.1 per cent, and sugar at $1.79, decreased 7.4 per cent. A third decrease was shown by the smallest item in the bill of fare, fish, which at 23 cents per capita, was 6.9 per cent below the 1917 level.

RED CROSS ACTIVITIES.

At the Red Cross rooms at Akron (O.) Chapter, members have had to come day and night—doing the packing and assembling at night so that the workers could be accommodated during the day.

Within a year after the chapter organized, a change of location had to be made. A spacious house, recently vacated by the University Club, is now in use by the various departments of the Red Cross chapter.

About the time this change was made, the president of the Akron College Club suggested starting a Red Cross salvage shop. The members were enthusiastically in favor, and such a shop was opened to the public.

The proceeds are devoted to the chapter use. The first month of business netted $2,000, which was turned over to the chapter treasurer. Recently the shop has been made one of the departments of the chapter.

A flower shop was also started in Akron. Space and the necessary merchandise were donated, and every Saturday flowers have been sold with the result that the receipts have made possible the purchase of a small car for the use of the Civilian Relief department.

The chapter has completely equipped an emergency hospital of twenty-five beds, housed temporarily in one of the fire engine houses. This equipment, on request of the supply officer, was used on the arrival of the Training Detachment at the University of Akron until the regular equipment which had been unduly delayed was available.

The Terre Haute (Ind.) Chapter has profited greatly through a white elephant sale conducted by Mrs. Fred B. Smith, which in one week netted the local Red Cross chapter $6,015.

Arthur Fromme, just before leaving Terre Haute for service in the army, gave the chapter his riding horse, valued at $200. At an auction sale by repeated biddings in at $300 and giving back the horse, netted the local chapter $2,225.

The stripping of prisoners apparently takes place only at the front in the heat and confusion of battle. At the prisons, camp committees, appointed by the prisoners themselves, see that American prisoners receive and enjoy the supplies sent them. Each individual, moreover, returns a signed receipt card for each parcel to the American Red Cross representatives at Bern.

The girls at the Smith College Relief Unit have opened a reading room for American and British soldiers. Regular visits also are paid to the American soldiers in the hospital at Beauvais. Wounded soldiers to the number of some 8,000 sometimes are fed in the course of a ten-day period. In one night the record of feeding 5,000 was made.

The American Red Cross rolling canteens in Italy recently distributed to 7,000 Italian soldiers packets containing socks, soap, cigarettes, chocolates, handkerchiefs, writing material and small mirrors and combs. Such packets will probably be distributed to some 40,000 more. They help to keep up the spirits of the fighters and are taken by the individual as evidence of America's direct participation in the war.

On motion of Esquire W. S. Dean, it is ordered that in the event the question of voting a 20 cent road tax, for a period of five (5) years, should carry in favor of said tax, this court will change the system of working the public roads of Ohio County, and will discontinue the system of working the roads by hands, and the very best system will be substituted for the system now in force. Ayes and nays being called resulted in all of the Justices present voting in the affirmative, whereupon the motion was declared carried and so ordered.

OHIO COUNTY CROPS.

In an interview with county farm agent Browder, yesterday morning we gleaned the following facts about the condition of Ohio county crops.

The recent frost did material damage to late corn in Caney bottoms, near Horse Branch. Much of such corn was ruined. From no other section of the county comes report of serious damage to any crop.

Mr. Browder thinks the corn crop will amount to fully 90 per cent of an average crop. Much of the corn crop is cut, and the late corn will within a few days be out of frost danger.

About 90 per cent of the tobacco has been cut, the quality is excellent and quantity about normal.

Wheat sowing progressing nicely, and the crop will be increased from 25 to 40 per cent over last year.

The sorgum crop is short in quantity and the yield the shortest in years.

Many cattle are being shipped to market, and going in fine condition.

Hog feeding for home consumption has begun, and the number of hogs being fed for this purpose is about the average of recent years.

Rye sowing unusually late, and prospects for only a small crop.

FARM LAND FOR SALE.

About six hundred acres of No. 1 farming land, known as the J. F. Collins farm on the Hartford and Beaver Dam pike. About 165 acres in cultivation and balance cut over land, well drained. Will be sold in tracts to suit purchaser. For further information and terms, see M. H. or W. H. COLLINS, Hartford, Ky.

ORDERS—OHIO COUNTY FISCAL COURT, SEPTEMBER 5, 1918.

Hon. Mack Cook, J. O. C. C. presid-ing.

On motion of Esq. Shown, it is ordered that the question of voting a tax of the sum of twenty (20) cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) dollars worth of all property subject by law to local taxation, under Section 157a of the Constitution, for the improvement and construction of public roads and bridges of the county be submitted to the voters of Ohio County. Said tax to be levied each year for five consecutive years immediately following said election. The taxes to be collected and accounted for by the Sheriff, at the same time and in the same manner and by the same process that he collects other taxes, and an election is hereby ordered to be held throughout Ohio County, in all the voting precincts therein, on the 5th, day of November, 1918, upon the proposition of whether or not a property tax of twenty (20) cents on each One Hundred (100) Dollars worth of property in Ohio County shall be levied for five (5) consecutive years, next immediately following said election for the purpose of improving and constructing either or both, the roads and bridges of the county.

Said election to be advertised, held and conducted in the manner according to the several provisions and requirements of the laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, now in force governing such elections and under the general election laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, where same relate and apply to elections held to determine the above question; and no amount of money in excess of the amount that can be raised by the levy in any one year, shall be expended in that year.

S. A. Bratcher, Sheriff of Ohio County, Ky., is hereby appointed, ordered and directed to advertise the time and purpose of the election and the amount of taxes to be levied each year and the number of years for which it is to be levied and collected in the newspaper published in Ohio County, having the largest circulation for thirty (30) days before the said election and he, the said sheriff, will cause a poll to be opened in each and all the precincts in and through out Ohio County, on the above named date, as the law in such cases directs and he may advertise said election by having a certified copy of this order published, as above directed, and W. C. Blankenship, Clerk of the Ohio County Court, is ordered and directed to furnish said Sheriff with a certified copy of this order, as it appears upon the Order Book, in time for publication.

The said Sheriff and County Clerk are further ordered and directed to do and perform each and every thing required under the laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, in advertising and conducting such election and in the preservation of the ballots and the canvassing and certification of the votes and said election is directed to be held in all respects as required by law governing such elections.

It is further ordered that it is the sense of this court, in the event said election results in favor of the levy and collection of such tax, as aforesaid, the money thereby derived shall be so used and apportioned as that in each magisterial District of the county. There shall be used the sum derived as aforesaid, in such district, for improving and constructing, either or both, the roads and bridges herein from said tax, though this shall not in any way restrict or impare the expenditure of other lawful funds in each respective Magisterial District, for said purposes, just as funds are now and have heretofore been used, so far as such funds may be necessary and available, and in the manner provided by law, and that a more adequate and effective method of working the roads be put in operation than is now in effect. Ayes and Nays being called resulted in all the Justices present voting in the affirmative, thereupon the motion was declared carried and so ordered.
